

Monday Week 4	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
---------------	----------------	-----------	----------	--------

Topic: Censorship and Hip-Hop Objective: To explore the reason that rap music in particular is constantly singled out in the media as a bad influence. Literacy Aspect: Students will look up a particular article on the internet and write a short response. Class discussion.	Topic: Anti-tobacco ads Objective: To watch and analyze a series of anti-tobacco ads Literacy Aspect: As a class we will watch several different anti-tobacco ads and analyze them. Students will work in groups to come with their own anti-tobacco and present to the class.	Topic: The Music and Message of Lauryn Hill Objective: To explore the socially conscious and positive messages in the music of a female hip-hop artist Literacy aspect: Students will read and analyze lyrics. Students will compare and contrast to other songs we have heard. We will discuss again the role of famous people in the media.	Topic: Culminating activity. Pick favorite writing of the month Objective: Work on culminating activity. Students will also each be picking one of their journal entries and or one of their short essays we have written during the month They will be asked to rewrite. Literacy aspect: Students will be reminded of all the work they have done. Rewriting will enhance their knowledge and help their writing skills.	Topic: Culminating activity. Bookbinding. Objective: Work on culminating activity. Students will work together binding their pieces into a book. I will have made copies and will be helping them. The process is simple we will use a hole puncher and twine. Literacy aspect: Students get to see their works as a unit.
--	--	---	--	--