

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Topic:	The use of tobacco in Spain and Latin American countries	The significance of wine within the Spanish culture	The prevalence of mentioning alcohol within hip-hop	The industry of coffee-making within Latin America	Mate: a unique caffeine substitute
Objective:	To investigate the process of cultivation, use, and effect of tobacco in Latin America	To demonstrate the cultural, economical, and religious importance of wine on Spain and Latin American countries	To analyze the context of alcohol within hip-hop music; to analyze the metaphors in the song, “Hip-hop, drogas y escenario”	To illustrate the importance of the coffee-growing industry and the strong economic emphasis of its production	To recognize the uniqueness, use, and cultural impact of mate on Argentina and Uruguay
Literacy Aspect:	Journal entry: Should tobacco remain legal in Spain and Latin America if it has been proven to be detrimental to one’s health?	Learn new vocabulary; take notes on process of wine making; interpret economical statistics; read book excerpts that make reference to cultural significance of wine	Read and translate lyrics; discuss theme and write in journal: What are your reactions to this song?	Interpret economical statistics; take notes on movie regarding the cultivation of coffee; journal entry: How has the Latin American coffee industry affected the United States?	To introduce new vocabulary words related to mate; practice verbally communicating to a partner how to make mate